

Dividends Decreased

At its December meeting, the DOY Board of Directors voted to decrease dividends across most tiers. The Board also approved a year-end bonus, to all savers except institution accounts. With the bonus, savings rates will remain the same as last quarter. The Board arrived at the decision after considering the current low, interest rate environment.